Log in using the same e-mail that you register your children in CYO. This log in may be different from your eHockey login used to take courses. Once you are in you will see this screen.

Click Register a Participant. It may show your children that are already registered or you can register you and your children all at the same time. You need to add yourself. If you know your Hockey Canada ID, enter it. Also use the same name that your Hockey Canada profile is created in. If you had a Hockey Canada profile from when you played and it's in another association, you will need to be transferred. DO NOT CREATE A NEW ID! E-mail admin@cyominorhockey.com with your birth date and we will get you transferred to CYO.
